How to choose a SPIA

Becoming familiar with the following features and terms is the first step in purchasing an immediate annuity: cash or installment refund guarantee option, period certain guarantee, COLA, joint and survivor, age rated or underwritten, longevity income start date, free look period, temporary life and exclusion ratio, commutation features.

Once you are familiar with the features and terms the next step is to get a quote that fits your needs best. SPIAQuote.com will shop our diverse group of companies to get you the highest possible guaranteed income.

Next, SPIAQuote.com will walk you through the application process and actively follow-up with the issuing insurance company to expedite your contract delivery and first annuity income payment.

Expert Knowledge

Here at SPIA Quote.com we believe education is the key to successfully managing your retirement years. We are here to help you every step of the way, from becoming familiar with immediate annuities to policy issue and payment.

Special Notes

If your health has been an issue, an underwritten age rated immediate will allow the insurance carrier to pay higher income due to the shortened life expectancy. This process can only increase an annuity payment and is a must for any individual with health issues.
